

OCT 7, 1780

Battle of King's Mountain, S.C.

Overwhelming blow struck by American Patriots Against British
Forces engaged in the relentless
Southern Campaign of the American Revolution

1780

Londoners could brush their teeth
with the 1st factory-made toothbrushes

June 2, 1780

1912 Dates J-BK

TRUMBULL vs WATT

While sailing off the east coast of North America, the British boat WATT, commanded by Captain COULTHARD was fired upon by the American TRUMBULL. For three hours the boats lay side by side and maintained a heavy fire which seriously damaged both boats. Finally the TRUMBULL with her and allowed the Watt to proceed.

8 men were killed and 31 wounded on the Trumbull. The loss on the Watt was ~~29~~ 92 men killed or wounded.

1912 Dates J-BK

July 12, 1780

WILLIAMSON'S FARM

A force of 400 British militia under Captain HOUK was taken by surprise at Williamson's Farm, in South Carolina, by a small number of Americans led by BRATTON and McClure. After a sharp engagement the British were overpowered and about 90 killed or wounded.

1780

Spring detent escapement